DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for the EVANGELIST for sometime, I thought I would try and write a few lines. It has been dry and very hot here, but it is cold and wet now. The most of the apples are falling off. Pa and ma belong to the Brethren church. My oldest brother is 13 years old. Pa is going to Rowlesburg tomorrow. Strawberries are gone, raspberries are ripe, cherries are ripe. Rev. C. E. Glenn has quit preaching at Fairview. He is not able to preach now. We haven't any Sabbath School at our church, but the M. E. church has Sabbath School. I have been sick and could not go.

HELEN DANCER.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would try and write a few lines for the Children's Column. I love to read the letters from the little children, for they are so interesting. I am twelve years old. I go to school in the winter. My studies are Reading, Writing, Spelling, Grammar, Geography and Arithmetic. My teacher's name was Mr. I. D. Richer. I liked him so well for he was so good and kind. Misses Myrtle and Ethel Fisher, of Mexico spent Sunday with my sister and I. We had a good time swinging in the hammock and riding our old family horse. Mr. Mice preached in our little town Sunday evening. He was a minister in the prison. I wish to become a member of Company B, so I will send ten cents for the Ashland College. Success to the Children's Column. Sincerely yours,

BLANCHE FLORA.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the EVANGELIST. I like to read the little letters very much. I will be eleven years old next July. I live near Roann. I go to Sunday School nearly every Sunday. I saw the editor at the Annual Meeting. I will send ten cents for Company B.

Stephen Allen's Pocket-Piece.

In the pocket-book of the Hon. Stephen Allen, who was drowned from on board the Henry Clay, was found a printed slip, apparently cut from a newspaper, of which the following is a copy. It is worthy to be placed in every newspaper and engraven on the heart of every young man.

"Keep good company, or none. Never be idle. If your hands can't be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind. Always speak the truth. Make few promises. Live up to your engagements. Keep your own secrets if you have any. When you speak to a person look him in the face. Good company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things else. Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one speaks evil of you, let your life be so that none will believe him. Drink no kind of intoxicating liquors. Ever live (misfortune excepted) within your income. When you retire to bed think over what you have been doing during the day. Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper. Small and steady gains give competency with a tranquil mind. Never play any game of chance. Avoid temptation through fear you may not withstand it. Earn money before you spend it. Never run into debt unless you see a way to get out again. Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it. Do not put off until tomorrow that which should be done today. Do not marry until you are able to support a wife. Never speak evil of any one. Be just before you are generous. Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy. Save when you are young to spend when you are old. Read over the above maxims at least once a week."

Keep Out of Draught.

"He who sits with his back to a draught sits with his face to a coffin," says the Spanish proverb. "Avoid a draught of air as you would the arrow of an enemy," says Boerhaave the great physician. He who exposes himself to a draught not only runs the risk of a cold, but of contagion; for the germs of disease which float in such currents of air, are liable to be inhaled and thus produce disease. Especially in a sick room a draught of air is liable to be laden with poison, and may carry death upon its wings.

It is very pleasant when a person is warm to feel the coolness of a gentle breeze, but it is not always safe, and many a cold, cough, rheumatism, and consumption, comes from sitting in a draught of air. Of course persons who have thus exposed themselves may, by prompt action, remedy the evils; but those who expose themselves and take cold are the very persons who are likely to neglect themselves after they have taken it, and fear no danger until their cases have gone beyond the reach of remedies. A little care often saves a great deal of labor. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.—ORIGINAL.

Temper at Home.

I have peeped into quiet "parlors," where the carpet is clean and not old, and the furniture polished and bright, into "rooms" where the chairs are neat and the floors carpetless; into "kitchens" where the family live and the meals are cooked and eaten, and the boys and girls are as blithe as the sparrows in the thatch overhead, and I see it is not so much wealth and learning, nor clothing, nor servants, nor toil, nor idleness, nor town, nor country, nor station, as tone and temper that render homes happy or wretched. And I see, too, that, in town or country, good sense and God's grace make life what no teachers, or accomplishments, or means, or society can make it—the opening stage of an everlasting psalm; the fair beginning of an endless existence; the goodly, modest, well-proportioned vestibule to a temple of God's building that shall never decay, wax old, or vanish away.

—DR. JOHN HALL.

Forgiveness.

The first joy the Christian feels is the knowledge of sins forgiven. A little girl knelt to pray, but the memory of a wrong done that day came between her soul and Christ. She had disobeyed her father. She rose and went to his room. "Papa," said she, as the tears filled her eyes and choked her voice, "I have come to tell you something that I did that was wrong today. I want to ask you to forgive me."

"I do not want you to tell me: I forgive you freely without it."

He dried away her tears and sent her away rejoicing. As she knelt once more for her Heavenly Father's blessing the readiness of her earthly father to forgive her was to her a type of the Divine forgiveness. She realized that "God pardons like a father who kisses the offence into everlasting forgetfulness."

The Upward Path.

With Repentance for sin
Should the ascent begin:
Then with Faith in God's Word
Hope will come from the Lord.
With Love for the Saviour,
And Joy in his favor,
We with Peace shall be blest,
And in Glory find rest.

This week fills out Company B, and the children have raised twenty dollars for the College. Now shall we commence Company C?

Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

"To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the

of this preparation."—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, La.

"I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color."—(Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bernice, Ind.

"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, however, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and firmly set."—J. H. Pratt, Spofford, Texas.
